WELCOME

We are indeed heading towards a new world!

For the first time in the history of INSOL Europe, the annual conference will be held on-line. The Technical Committee, demonstrating superb agility, embraced the opportunity to rethink the annual conference.

I am very proud and pleased to invite members as well as non-members to sign up for a series of four weekly sessions in October. In total, eight panel debates on hot topics of high relevance to all professionals in the field of insolvency and restructuring. Each session no longer than a nice lunchbreak with a great keynote speaker! And all this free to members and at a nominal fee for non-members. What's not to like!

I look forward to seeing you in cyberspace.
