

Nugee Memorial Pensions Conference & Dinner 2024

Wilberforce
CHAMBERS

3.5 CPD

Wednesday 19th June 2024

Nobu Shoreditch Hotel & Restaurant, 10-50 Willow St, London EC2A 4BH

Timetable

12.15pm	Registration and lunch	3.55pm	Break
1.15pm	Opening remarks from Edward Sawyer	4.20pm	Amendment power fetters: is the law now in disarray? Edward Sawyer and James Walmsley <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Has recent case-law taken a wrong turn?• BBC and protecting future service benefits• Are trust law principles correctly applied in the pensions context?
1.20pm	Guest speaker: Baroness Ros Altmann CBE	4.50pm	Discretion issues when dealing with surplus Michael Tennet KC, Jonathan Hilliard KC and Jonathan Chew <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Different types of discretions and the importance of classification• Discretions requiring the formation of a judgment• Securing discretionary increases on winding up - some thorny issues
2pm	Criminal and civil sanctions in the pensions context David Pollard, Sebastian Allen and James McCreath <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What conduct can now amount to a criminal offence or result in a civil penalty?• Whose criminal offence is it: when are directors liable alongside companies?• Mens rea: whose mind in the company matters?• Is a transaction tainted with criminality unenforceable as a matter of civil law?	5.35pm	Closing remarks from Edward Sawyer
2.45pm	Break	5.40pm	Drinks Reception in the Nami Bar
3.10pm	Automatic Enrolment - a selection of topical issues Paul Newman KC, Jennifer Seaman and Ram Lakshman <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The definition of 'worker'• Inducements & safeguards• Analysis of AE breaches	7.10pm	Dinner by Nobu

£190 + VAT for conference & dinner
£140 + VAT for conference only

For further information, please email seminars@wilberforce.co.uk

